OVERVIEW

NOBEL Women is a national non-profit, non-partisan 501 (c)(3) organization originally established in 1985 to increase and promote the presence of black women in government and in corporate leadership. NOBEL-Women is composed primarily of current and former black women legislators and a number of appointed officials. Currently, we represent 238 Black women legislators in 40 of 50 states.

As an organization, we have four core objectives. These objectives include: (a) creating programs and platforms that advance black women in the fields of public policy, public service and civic engagement; (b) serving as a network and support system for Black women in public policy and corporate leadership; (c) serving as a medium for thoughtful dialogue on issues of public interest between elected officials and stakeholders; and (d) training and educating a class of cultivated and experienced Black women professionals to assume government and/or corporate leadership roles.

MISSION STATEMENT

NOBEL-Women is committed to increasing and promoting the presence of Black women in government, non-profit and corporate leadership through training and development; protecting the public interest of women and families; and supporting policy initiatives that contribute to the enhancement and sustainability of the Black community.

Greetings Friends and Supporters:

The National Organization of Black Elected Legislative Women (NOBEL-Women) looks forward to your participation during our 2014 Annual Legislative Conference (ALC), June 19th through 22nd, 2014 in Biloxi, Mississippi. This year’s theme –NOBEL-Women on the M.O.V.E.: Motivating, Organizing, Vocalizing and Empowering the Next Generation of Black Women Leaders—is reflective of our ongoing commitment to educating and cultivating the next generation of Black women leaders.

As in years past, we will center the conversations of this year’s conference on issues that impact the Black community and highlight the various ways women can improve their quality of life. We are looking forward to bringing together legislators, community members, students and stakeholders from around the country for thought invoking conversation in hopes of generating solutions to some of the nation's most plaguing issues.

NOBEL-Women serves as a global voice in inspiring and encouraging women to take a more active role in pursuing government and corporate leadership roles. We have worked to achieve this goal by ensuring that we provide educational forums, leadership training and development opportunities for black women throughout the country who are ready to lead.

By participating in the NOBEL-Women Annual Legislative Conference, you help support the organization’s operations and aid us in fulfilling our mission. The Annual Legislative Conference creates an opportunity for you to access many of the Nation's decision makers and leaders around the issues of health, education, technology, economic development and telemedicine. You are invited to register early and qualify for one of our limited scholarships or discounted registrations. Please visit us online at www.nobel-women.org or call us at 202.507.6246 for more information on NOBEL-Women or our Annual Legislative Conference.
